Hi Sarah-

I heard from the ADA in Fall River (instead of New Bedford) yesterday afternoon saying that his Superior Court case is still on for 2/21/2012, which is the same day as your [REDACTED] trial. And, as I was guessing, he doesn't think he'll actually need me until the 22nd, though he still wants me on-call in case the defendant decides last minute to have a bench trial instead of a jury trial. He had some sort of meeting/conference call/??? later in the afternoon to find out which case would actually get to go first, so I'll keep you informed when I know more.

Hi Sarah-

Just a heads up: I received notice this morning that there is a Superior Court case in New Bedford on 2/21/2012 in which I may be needed to testify as I analyzed the drugs in that case. I realize that this is the same day as the [REDACTED] trial, but I am hopeful that I will still be available if you need me as New Bedford wants me on call and I doubt they will actually get to me on the 21st - more likely on the 22nd or 23rd.
